What personal data do we collect and how we collect it

In this section, we provide information about personal data we receive from you when you use services of our company, as well as information about which personal data we may collect from other sources.

Most of your personal data is collected directly from you when you use our services. We may collect some of your personal data from other sources, for example personal data of a technical nature is collected from devices you use to access our website and from cookies, such as information about what you are viewing online, where and when. Like most other websites, our technology tells us when and how you use our website, for example when you've filled in the form.

The range of personal data we collect and use will depend on why we need them. We collect only the personal data that we necessarily need to provide our services or that you have expressly agreed to provide them.

You are not obliged to provide us with your personal data, however some of your personal data is necessary for the conduct of our business or other activities (providing our services). If you do not provide us with any of your personal data, we will not be able to provide you with services offered by our company. The provision of some of your personal data is therefore a requirement that is necessary to enter into a contract or to perform a contract.

We use some of your personal data only if you give us your explicit consent. We want to give you the opportunity to contact us in case you have questions about our services and activities. We are also interested in informing you about the offer of your services, news, discounts or promotional offers. In such a case, we process your personal data solely on your express consent to such processing.

Before contacting us, resp. before we begin to provide you with this information, we will ask you whether you agree with the processing of your personal data for this purpose. You have the right to change your decision on direct marketing at any time and to withdraw your consent to the processing of personal data online through our company website by clicking on the "Unsubscribe" link found in each information email, by phone or through a request addressed to a contact person specified in this Privacy Policy. The withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent prior to its withdrawal.

WHO WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL DATA WITH AND WHY

In this section, we state which recipients we can provide or share with your personal data.

Some of your personal data may be provided to entities that provide services to our company. We strictly require all service providers to take full care of personal data protection and not use your personal information for their own marketing purposes unless you consent to it yourself. We only share the personal data that our service providers inevitably need to provide services. These are, for example, entities that provide the following services to our company:

- technology services (e.g. IT equipment management, computing management, server infrastructure management),
- provision of webhosting services,
- provision of services related to the creation and operation of websites,
- companies that provide direct marketing and send our electronic communications on our behalf,
- recovery of claims,
- bookkeeping, legal services, other professional services.

Some of the service providers we cooperate with are operating online media channels (websites, social network sites), providing relevant online ads for our products and services through these online media channels. You can see advertisement of our products and services, for example, if you visit a social network page. Such service providers include, for example, Facebook, Google, Adobe.

Some of your personal data may be provided to public authorities and other public administration authorities, in cases where such obligation is determined by law or it is necessary for the determination, exercise or defense of the rights and legitimate interests of our company or third parties.

HOW LONG DO WE KEEP YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We keep your personal data to the extent allowed by applicable, generally binding legal regulations, for a maximum of 10 (ten) years. In exceptional situations, if circumstances require so, the retention period of personal data may be prolonged for reasons of enforcement, demonstration, defense and/or enforcement of the rights, claims, and legitimate interests of the data subject or our company, or the conduct of our internal investigation. The length of such a retention period is conditioned, in particular, by the duration of the obligations relating, for example the warranty provided for our company's products or services, as well as the necessity of storing such personal data in case of need to prove, apply or defend legal claims.

HOW WE TRANSFER YOUR PERSONAL DATA OUTSIDE THE EUROPEAN UNION

Your personal data are transferred outside the European Union and/or outside of the European Economic Area only to the extent permitted by applicable, generally binding legal regulations. In the absence of a relevant EU decision on adequacy, the standard contractual data protection clauses adopted by the EU Commission or the standard contractual data protection clauses adopted by the Personal Data Protection Authority and approved by the EU Commission as appropriate guarantees and means to carry out such transmissions. A copy of such standard contractual arrangements will be made available through the contact details listed in this Privacy Policy.

Your personal data can be transferred into following countries:

USA
Canada

WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS AND HOW TO USE THEM

In relation to the processing of your personal data, you have the following rights, to the extent stipulated by generally binding legal regulations:

1. Right to object to processing of personal data

You have the right:

- a. to object, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, at any time to processing of personal data concerning you which is conducted for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by our company;
- b. in case personal data are processed for direct marketing purposes, you have the right to object at any time to processing of personal data concerning you, for such marketing, which includes profiling to the extent that it is related to such direct marketing;
- c. in case personal data are processed for scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes, you shall have the right, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, to object to processing of personal data concerning you, unless the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out for reasons of public interest

2. Right of access to personal data

Based on your request addressed to the contact person specified in this Privacy Policy, we will provide you with a copy of the personal data we process about you by email if you do not request a different means of providing personal data.

3. Right to rectification of personal data

You have the right to obtain from us without undue delay the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning you. Taking into account the purposes of the processing, you have the right to have incomplete personal data completed.

4. Right to erasure (right to be forgotten)

You have the right to obtain from us the erasure of personal data concerning you without undue delay, in case:

- a. the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- b. you withdraw consent on which the processing is based, and there is no other legal ground for the processing;
- c. you object to the processing pursuant to the Section 1. a. of this Privacy Policy and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing, or you object to the processing pursuant to the Section 1. b. of this Privacy Policy;
- d. your personal data have been unlawfully processed;
- e. your personal data have to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation in Union or Member State law to which the controller is subject.

5. Right to restriction of processing of personal data

You have the right to obtain from us restriction of processing, in case:

- a. you contested the accuracy of the personal data, for a period enabling the controller to verify the accuracy of the personal data;
- b. the processing is unlawful and you oppose the erasure of the personal data and request the restriction of their use instead;
- c. we do not longer need your personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by you for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- d. you have objected to processing of your personal data pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the controller override those of the data subject.

6. Right to data portability

You have the right to receive the personal data concerning you, which you have provided to us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from the controller to which the personal data have been provided, where:

- a. the processing is based on consent or on a contract; and
- b. the processing is carried out by automated means.

7. Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority

If you believe that your rights concerning processing of your personal data have been violated or violation of generally binding privacy laws occurred, you have the right to contact the Office for Personal Data Protection of the Slovak Republic with a motion to initiate proceedings for the protection of personal data pursuant to Section 99 of the Personal Data Protection Act.

You can apply all of your rights by contacting our authorized representative specified in this Privacy Policy in writing, including e-mail, and also by legal procedure addressed to the supervisory authority, Office for Personal Data Protection of the Slovak Republic, Hraničná 12, 820 07 Bratislava, tel.: + 421 2 32 31 32 14, e-mail: statny.dozor@pdp.gov.sk, website: <http://www.dataprotection.gov.sk/>.

Your application may be denied in cases permitted or prescribed by law.

CHANGE OF PRIVACY POLICY

We may sometimes change or amend this Privacy Policy. Such alteration or modification in any manner without your express consent will not affect your rights under the applicable generally binding data protection laws. We recommend that you regularly visit our website and get familiar with the current version of this Privacy Policy, but we can alert you of major changes, possibly by email.
